

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER
of THE GREATER ST. PAUL AREA

ST. PAUL JCC DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

St. Paul JCC donors' personally identifiable information including, but not limited to: Name, Address, and Credit Card/EFT Information, may be collected by the JCC Development, Accounting, Program or Membership staff and stored in the JCC Database system.

Donor's personally identifiable information may be used to track and acknowledge giving, to inform about JCC programs, services and happenings, and to provide information about opportunities to support the St. Paul JCC.

The St. Paul JCC strives to protect the privacy of our donor's personal information by implementing the following policies:

- Only JCC staff specifically approved by the Chief Executive Officer shall be given access to donor's personally identifiable information in our Database.
- The JCC strictly prohibits anyone from selling, trading or sharing personally identifiable information with any person, organization or entity.

The most up to date JCC Donor Privacy Policy is available on the JCC website and is available upon request in digital or print format.